

DO-DHAM 05N 06D FIXED DEPARTURE PACKAGE : 20.05.2024

Do Dham yatra tour refers to a pilgrimage to two of the four Dhams. Uttarakhand has four Dhams: Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath, and Badrinath. For Hindus, all four are holy sites in Uttarakhand. People who have trouble hiking participate in the Do Dham Yatra. Do Dham yatra tour is still mostly thought of being a yatra of only two Dhams, Kedarnath and Badrinath. For Hindus in India, these two Dhams are extremely religiously significant. One of the most popular pilgrimages in northern India is the Do Dham Yatra, which consists of two Hindu shrines in the Indian Himalayas. At least once in a lifetime, Hindu devotees travel from all over the world to attend the yatra. The Do Dham Yatra, which includes Gangotri and Badrinath, is also known as the Char Dham Yatra, which includes Yamunotri, Gangotri, Kedarnath, and Badrinath. All of these temples are located in the Garwhal district in Uttarakhand. Yamunotri and Gangotri are devoted to two distinct rivers, Yamuna and Ganga, whereas Kedarnath and Badrinath are dedicated to Lord Shiva and Lord Vishnu, respectively. Kedarnath is the highest point in the world which is dedicated to the one holy jyotirlinga out of twelve jyotirlingas of Lord Shiva. Badrinath Temple is dedicated to Hindu Lord Vishnu Bhagwan.
